1 Thessalonians 4:9-12  \"Excel in the Grace of Giving\" Sermon  NAS text  Tim Black

1.

Introduction

1.

There is a family which lives a few miles from my parents' house in rural eastern Washington, l'll call them the Thompsons. Mrs. Thompson's husband had died from cancer, leaving her to care for her two daughters who were in grade school, and try to earn a living at the same time. The Thompsons became just one of a long list of needy families over the years to whom my parents have given food, clothing, a little money, a place to stay. Every Tuesday night, my Mom would pick up several neighborhood kids, including little Amber Thompson, to give them a ride to the boys' and girls' clubs at our church called Calvinettes and Cadets. And today, partly as a result of my parents' kindness, Amber has professed faith in Christ, and has become a faithful member of a Reformed church. The Lord used my parents' generosity to add one lost sheep to the other 99 in His fold. He can use your generosity to do the same.

2.

Especially in the 70's and 80's, in the earlier years of their marriage, my parents never had very much money, but they always had enough to give something to a family in need. They never called our family "needy;" it was always other families who were needy, and to whom we should offer our help. I can see now that this was not a pull-yourselves-up-by-your-own-bootstraps
, but rather it was humility
; it was not pride
, but rather generosity 3.

Mom and Dad were living out what Paul instructs us to do in Eph esians 4:28 that "He who steals must steal no longer; but rather he must labor, performing with his own hands what is good, so that he will have something to share with one who has need."
And let me tell you, there is hardly a better way to show someone how great is God's love for them in Christ than to offer them some food, some clothing, to invite them into your family, and into the family of God, when a person is in need. If you know how great Christ's love is for you, and if you love Jesus Christ for dying on the cross for your sins, then you will extend Christ's saving love to the needy in this way. This is why Jesus said in

Matthew 25

37 \"Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink? 38 'And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You? 39 'When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' 40 \"The King will answer and say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.'

4.

It is this same love, God's saving love for those who are weak, downcast, who are lost in their sin and their misery, which the Thessalonians had begun to show to their needy neighbors in Macedonia. Reminding them that they have begun well, now Paul exhorts them to excel still more in this grace of giving, so that they will # bear much fruit for the kingdom of God. And so God exhorts us today as well in this passage to do the same; now that we have begun to give, we must work so we will be able to give more to those who are in need, and thereby we will bear much fruit.

5.

We will consider this passage under 3 headings, then, first, in vv. 9-10a, "You have begun to

You have begun to give (9-10a)

1.

Faith: Taught by God

first of the reason for, then of the fact of, your giving. First, the reason you have begun to give is that you have been "taught by God to love one another.

" Paul says this in v. 9,

saying,

"9 Now as to the love of the brethren, you have no # need for anyone to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. "

Paul didn't need to remind the ## Thessalonians of their basic  Gospel-duty to ## love one another,

because God Himself

 was teaching them to do so. Paul is not here denying that the Thessalonians need any teaching whatsoever, for clearly Paul is teaching them about many things throughout this epistle, and even about their duty to love # one another. But Paul is speaking here about the fact that God has already begun to give them a working faith, and a laboring love. In giving them faith in Christ as their Savior, God has taught them to love one another, and so now their love has begun to labor, even ## under persecution,

even being willing to suffer so that others might hear the gospel and be saved. In contrast to the Old Covenant, where people would look into the mirror of God's law and then forget its requirements for their lives, now in the New # Covenant God in fact

writes the law on the hearts of His people, as He promised in Jere miah 31:33-34 , saying -
