response to Christ v. 9

2.

Intellectually – your message v. 8

3.

Physically – your conviction about the location of Jesus' bones v. 10

For Discussion:

1.

What would it have meant to “win” or “lose” the physical battle for the bones of Jesus? The

intellectual battle?
The spiritual battle?
Has this battle been won? Who has won the battle?

2.

Name one reason
“The Lost Tomb of Jesus” documentary
could be in error that it has discovered the tomb—and the bones—of Jesus Christ.

3.

How could the general public have learned of the location of Jesus' tomb? See 27:61, and 28:15. Does this make it more likely the traditionally-held location of Jesus' tomb is correct?

4.

Who is lying,
according to Matthew?

According to the Jews? Whose story
do you find more convincing? Why?

Give two reasons the Jews' story is not true.

5.

Are angels more powerful than God?
See vv. 2-6, Isaiah 6:2-3. How does the

angel's power
compare to Jesus'
power? Who would be most likely to be able to win a physical,
intellectual, or spiritual
battle for the bones of Jesus—the Jews?
The angel? Jesus Himself? You?

6.

What are some of the responses of unbelievers to the empty tomb? Of believers?
