James 3:1-5

The Warning

1 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness.

The Ground

2 For we all stumble in many ways, and if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body.

The Illustrations

3 If we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we guide their whole bodies as well.

4 Look at the ships also: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs.

5 So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great things. How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire!

Discussion Questions:
1.
V. 1: Should every Christian seek to become a teacher? Consider 1 Cor. 12:29, 31; 1 Tim. 3:1-2 Should every Christian be a teacher?
2.
V. 2: Why does James say not many should become teachers?
3.
Vv. 3-5: How are the tongue's effects like that of a

Small fire?
4.
Where this week have you let your tongue get out of control? Where has it set something on fire? Ask God to help you control your tongue.
